Butte College

• BC: BIOL 2 - Introduction to Human Biology (Grewal)

This course is a survey of the basic principles and concepts used by biologists to explain how organisms live and survive. Topics include ecology, a survey of the world's organisms, genetics, evolution, cell structure and function, and energy conversions.

◦ AGENDA
◦ Text